INAUGURAL BALL SOCIAL HISTORY

With the inaugural ball given Friday evening in honor of Governor and Mrs. Thomas E. Campbell a matter of social history, society in now turning its attention to future events particularly interested in the bridge dinner to be given at the Country club on Thursday evening. There have been few evening card affairs at the club this season and the committee is making a special effort to have the coming affair unusually interesting. The dinner that precedes the bridge will also be exceptionally attractive. On Saturday afternoon the club will give a bridge tea with Mrs. H. M. Fennimore, Mrs. Roy Wayland, Mrs. Andrew Baumer, Jr., Mrs. H. C. Prince, Mrs. Floyd Stahl and Mrs. W. H. Thomson as hostesses.

Fancy Dress Ball

Notable among the winter's smart events was the fancy dress ball given last evening at the Country club by Mrs. Carl Anderson, Mrs. Lou Ella Archer and Mrs. Foster H. Rockwell. The event not only had the distinction of being one of the most picturesque and artistic affairs of the year but one of the most pleasant as well. The clubhouse was decorated in a green and orange decorative scheme which furnished an attractive background for the many clever costumes worn. The event was announced many weeks in advance giving sufficient time for elaborate plans in the way of costuming which was evidenced by the 140 guests who attended the affair. Every conceivable costume that has ever been featured at a fancy dress ball was noticed on the dance floor while not a few original costumes lent a pleasing note. The riot of color gave a madrigal effect which was carried out in the arrangements. Several appeared in masquerade which added to the jollity. The Pilsley orchestra furnished the dance program. Mrs. Archer always individual looked particularly stunning in an Egyptian costume, red being the predominating color. Her head ornaments were most effective. Mrs. Rockwell made a fascinating Queen of Spades and Mrs. Anderson was very lovely in a French costume of pink satin.

One of the most attractive of the many before-the-ball events was the buffet supper given by Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Dulmage and Mrs. Cal Messner at the latter's residence on North Central avenue. Yellow and green prevailed in tone in the cut flowers and greens used in decoration.

Mrs. George Alkire Will Entertain Club

Mrs. George Alkire of Palm Lane will entertain the Pilsley club at its next meeting a week from Thursday. Last week's event was delightful, the hostesses being Mrs. A. L. Doran and Mrs. Eva Butler. The guest list included Mrs. S. D. Little, Mrs. Harvey Patton, Mrs. T. E. Irvine, Mrs. Mary E. Brown, Mrs. D. M. Bernard, Mrs. S. A. Bowman, Mrs. Eleanor Snider, Mrs. W. S. Hefling, Mrs. James Jones, Mrs. K. S. Townsend, Mrs. L. W. Coggins, Mrs. George Alkire and Mrs. E. M. Lamson.

MRS. LILO M. PERRIN

One of the most charming and attractive young matrons in Phoenix at present is Mrs. Lilo M. Perrin who arrived recently from Williams to spend the remaining winter weeks here. The Perrins are established at 1417 North First street having leased the residence for the season. Their marriage was a recent event in Washington, D. C. and was one of the most brilliant affairs at the capital this winter. The bride before her marriage was Miss Elizabeth Harr, daughter of William Harr, an assistant attorney general under the Roosevelt administration. She was one of the best known and liked girls in Washington and her wedding to the millionaire Arizona land owner was a notable event.

day evening preceding the Inaugural ball. They gave a smartly appointed affair at the Arizona club at which yellow decorative scheme was expressed in the use of cut flowers. Their guests numbered 14.

Three virtues which describe in a nutshell that perfect every-meal food for every member of the family.

BARKER'S BREAD

The protein, carbohydrates and fat which BARKER'S BREAD contains, together with the fact that it is a milk loaf, prove its food value. Cost comparison with other foods proves its economy; and taste—that final test—brings a satisfaction you have longed for but never found before in Bread.
